

OFFICE STAFF: Check your Total Reward Statement for a snapshot of all your benefits

Want a quick snapshot of your OMEGS retirement savings and Life Cover, as well as your Voluntary Top-up Cover, Spouses' Cover, Disability Cover and other Old Mutual benefits? The good news is: OFFICE STAFF (i.e. those on a TGP salary structure) can see all of this info in one place!

To get your hands on your Total Reward Statement, simply log on to Oracle HRMS, and select the My Self Service section. Most information is updated monthly, although certain fields are only updated quarterly.

If you are a FIELD STAFF employee (e.g. an advisor on a commission-based package): Unfortunately the Total Reward Statement is not yet available for Field Staff employees. Old Mutual is currently exploring the feasibility of developing Total Reward Statements for Field Staff employees.

Have you updated your Beneficiary Nomination Form lately?

If you were to pass away, there is a Life Cover benefit which is payable from OMEGS. Your Beneficiary Nomination Form gives the Management Board information about your dependants and nominees, and tells them your preferences about how the benefit should be allocated. The Board is required by law to consider ALL of your dependants, and your Beneficiary Nomination Form is a key element in this process.

You can update your Beneficiary Nomination Form on Secure Services.
