

OLD MUTUAL

EMPLOYEE GROUP IN SUPERFUND

SPECIAL NEWSFLASH
JMC ELECTIONS 2014

We need your nominations!

Your retirement interests in the Old Mutual Employee Group in Superfund (OMEGS) is managed by a Board of Trustees as well as a Joint Management Committee (JMC) on YOUR behalf. The JMC is made up of representatives who are all Old Mutual employees. During the coming weeks YOU, a member of OMEGS, will have the opportunity to elect two new JMC representatives to join the current committee.

How does the process work?

1. The first step in the process is to NOMINATE candidates. This is your chance to nominate candidates who you believe will act in a responsible and committed way to ensure that OMEGS is effectively managed and well governed.
2. Once the candidate list has been finalised, you will have a chance to vote for two new member-elected JMC representatives (This second stage will happen during August 2014).
3. We will announce the two successful candidates who will serve on the JMC, towards the end of September 2014.

How do I nominate a candidate?

If you would like to nominate someone to serve on the JMC then you need to do the following:

- Decide who you would like to nominate, and obtain their consent (i.e. get their permission to nominate them).
A candidate must be an active member of OMEGS.
- Ask them for their full name and surname, staff code, email address and date of birth.
- Submit your nominations by clicking on this link and completing the nomination process.

Please note that you may submit a maximum of two nominations. If you submit more than two nominations, the two most recently submitted nominations will be accepted.

When can I make my nomination/s?

The nomination process starts today 17 July 2014, and closes at 16h00 on 31 July 2014.

Where can I find out more about JMC Elections and the role of a JMC representative?

Check out the detail on the OMEGS website where you will find everything you need to know about the JMC Elections and the role of a JMC representative.
