Your OMEGS retirement fund contribution rate is based on your pensionable earnings before any pre-tax allocations or other deductions are made. The Employer's contribution to risk and retirement of 12% of your pensionable earnings is added to your contribution. The minimum Employee contribution is 6.5%. You can change your Employee contribution rate in July and November each year. Speak to a financial adviser if you need assistance understanding the tax implications or impact on your take-home pay. Read more at www.omegs.co.za/benefit-overview/contributions/

Please circle the appropriate percentage contribution you would like to make to your retirement fund savings:
